"I recently created a start-up holding company here in South Africa, and took up Kenton's monthly Subscription Consulting Service to help raise the initial debt financing that I needed. Working with Kenton has been enjoyable and he has delivered much more than what I expected with regard to him helping me prepare for international financiers.

"He has given me great insight into Business, Startups, and International Financing and helped me ANALYSE everything a number of times over. His independent comments and international view of my business plan has been of great value to me, and every time we talk I learn a great deal from him.

"I can highly recommend Kenton's monthly Subscription Consulting Service; he will add tremendous value to you and your project."

"I have always known Kenton to be honest and efficient with business dealings. I would not hesitate to recommend him for sound, thorough business finance and exit strategies. We first met 1996 as Kenton quickly built the CompWellness Network from nothing to an internationally-know organization, with four books, excellent journal, high-ranking website, and 100s of member/clients. His insightful grasp of new health concepts, was only exceeded by his ability to translate those concepts into powerful marketing for me and the other members."

Feb 14, 2014, David was Kenton's client
